

Terms and Conditions

The Skills to Foster[®]: Train the Trainer

1. Process and Agreement

This Agreement outlines the terms under which The Skills to Foster: Train the Trainer course is delivered and accessed.

2. Purpose of the Course

The Train the Trainer course enables participants to develop their skills, knowledge and confidence to effectively deliver The Skills to Foster preparation training for prospective foster carers.

3. Eligibility

Access to the Train the Trainer course is available only to organisations that:

- Hold a current licence for The Skills to Foster, or
- Purchase The Skills to Foster at the same time as the Train the Trainer course.

4. Purchase and Licence Start Date

The Skills to Foster may be purchased before, or at the same time as, the Train the Trainer course.

Where purchased at the same time, the start date of The Skills to Foster licence may be deferred until the final day of the Train the Trainer course.

5. Course Materials and Access

Participants will receive access to required course materials through the eLearning Platform using a temporary login. Access is limited to the materials needed to complete the Train the Trainer course.

The purchaser is granted limited, non-transferable access to the course materials solely for the purpose and duration of the Train the Trainer course. No ownership rights are transferred.

If preferred, licensed users may access the full The Skills to Foster materials using their existing login details.

During the training you will need access to a laptop.

6. Ownership and Use of Materials

All materials provided through the eLearning Platform remain the property of The Fostering Network and are protected by copyright.

Except as expressly permitted, you must not copy, reproduce, store, distribute, share, screen capture, or create derivative works from the Licensed Materials, whether in whole or in part.

7. During course delivery

The recording of any part of the course delivery is prohibited, whether in-person or virtual.

Where in-person training has been commissioned, the course will be exclusively delivered to attendees who are physically present and will not be available via remote or hybrid access.

Participants must be available to attend and participate in all scheduled course dates, for the duration of the course.

8. Acceptance

By purchasing and/or participating in the Train the Trainer course, the purchaser and participants confirm that they accept the terms set out in this Agreement.

