- Upskill your employees.
- Access exclusive events and training.
- Deepen your commitment.

An Introduction to Fostering Friendly Partners

At The Fostering Network, we know that when employers understand and support foster carers in their workforce, it makes a real difference, not just to their employees, but to children and families in their local communities.

Building on the success of our free Fostering Friendly Employers scheme, we're delighted to introduce Fostering Friendly Partners, a new way for organisations to deepen their commitment to fostering.

As a Partner, you'll have access to exclusive learning opportunities, networking events, and tailored resources to help you champion fostering within your organisation. It's about celebrating the difference you already make, while giving you the tools and connections to do even more for children, young people, and the colleagues who care for them.
